SPEAKERS

John, Sarah

- J

John 00:00

Okay, so get ready, because we're diving headfirst into the Urantia Book today. Buckle up, right? Specifically, paper 22
- S

Sarah 00:06

Yeah,
- J

John 00:07

to explore these beings called trinitized Sons of God. Have you ever heard of these guys?
- S

Sarah 00:14

I mean, it's a mouthful, right? Trinitized sons of God said a lot, but the idea is so fascinating. You know, we're talking about beings that achieve this incredible spiritual status, but not just through one path, like there are many ways to get there. Oh, we're like that, like cosmic career paths, but way cooler, exactly. So the Urantia Book categorizes them, and the first group is Trinity, embraced sons. That name alone just sends shivers down my spine. Think about it, embraced by the Trinity. Whoa, I know, right? It's like reaching the peak of spiritual attainment.
- J

John 00:27

S

Sarah 00:37

J

John 00:46

So what does this trinity embrace? Even do? It elevates

S

Sarah 00:49

these beings, right? Gives them immense responsibility in the grand universe, like a promotion, cosmic management, something like that. Sign me up. Although it's not just one promotion, it's like

J

John 00:54

S

Sarah 01:00

a whole ladder, seven rungs on that ladder, seven

J

John 01:03

mighty messengers, those high in authority. That's a power title, right there, even those without name and numbers, mysterious, right? The names themselves. Just draw you in.

S

Sarah 01:09

John 01:13

I'm hooked already. So tell me more about these mighty messengers. They sound powerful, important. They are. They're like cosmic judges observers. But what's interesting is they've been there, done that. They ascended through the universe themselves. Oh,

S

Sarah 01:21

J John 01:28
so they have experience like a judge who's been a lawyer and a defendant Exactly. They understand the journey firsthand. Makes their judgment kind of invaluable, right?

S Sarah 01:35
And then you've got those high in authority literally living up to the name. So

J John 01:39
these are the cosmic administrators keeping everything running smoothly. The

S Sarah 01:43
ultimate organizers of the universe. Got

J John 01:45
it, cosmic judges, cosmic administrators. Now, what about those shrouded in mystery, those without name and number? Why no name tag?

S Sarah 01:52
They're described as having this deep, profound understanding of the universal Father's will. It's like their spiritual comprehension. It's off the charts. Transcends labels exactly I get it. Okay? So the Urantia Book, it also mentioned some other groups, right? You got your trinitized custodians, trinitized Ambassadors, celestial guardians, his end assistants,

J John 02:00

S Sarah 02:11
so many fascinating players in this cosmic drama. Break it down for me. Who are these guys? Think of the custodians as like cosmic librarians, meticulous record keepers, okay? And then you've got the ambassadors. They're like the universe's diplomats, representing the ancients of days. Okay?

J John 02:29

I'm getting like men in black vibes, except, you know, more like beings in white robes, yeah, but those celestial guardians and the high sun assistants, those titles sound important too. What are they all about?

S

Sarah 02:41

So the celestial guardians, they're like the strong arm of the super universe, courts upholding cosmic law and the high sun assistants, yeah, each one embodies a single perfect idea, like, imagine having access to that kind of focused wisdom.

J

John 02:58

It's mind blowing all these beings, judges, administrators, diplomats, enforcers, advisors, and they all work together with different skills and backgrounds. It makes you wonder how it all comes together. It really does. And how do they even become trinitized? The Urantia Book mentions a Trinity embrace. What is that? Exactly? It's a mystery. Even in the Urantia Book, like it's the secret process, a cosmic secret, even for them, exactly, but the book does give us a glimpse. It talks about paradise of one personalities and some of the finality core. These are beings at the peak of evolution, right? And under certain conditions, they try to bring new beings into existence. They just create them. It's called concept identity. Think about it.

S

Sarah 03:15

J

John 03:38

So they like concentrate really hard, use their minds. It's more than that. The Urantia Book describes it as spiritualizing, idealizing and actualizing a new concept. Whoa, that's powerful stuff. It is. And if they're successful, we get a new trinitized Son of God, you got it, but you said it's not always a sure thing. No,

S

Sarah 03:42

J

John 03:53

S

Sarah 03:57

no. It's risky. Even for these beings, the Urantia Book is very clear about that

J John 04:01
they can fail, fail, but they're so evolved. It

S Sarah 04:05
says, even without any mistake on their part, sometimes it doesn't work. That's kind of sad.
What happens if they fail? They become part of a special group, beings who made the ultimate effort but experienced the ultimate disappointment. Wow, even

J John 04:18
in the celestial realms, there's

S Sarah 04:19
disappointment. It makes you think, right? It does.

J John 04:22
So this trinity embrace it's one path, but the Urantia Book also mentions creature trinitized.
What's that about? Ah,

S Sarah 04:31
now we're getting to the really unique cases.

J John 04:34
So these guys, they don't do the concept identity thing, nope. They're

S Sarah 04:38
directly created by the paradise Trinity. Wow, special delivery.

J John 04:41
But what makes them different?

S Sarah 04:43

 Sarah 04:46
Their purpose is more specialized, more focused. Take the celestial guardians, for example, the

 John 04:48
cosmic police. Exactly

 Sarah 04:49
they embody that function. They're

 John 04:51
created for it so they don't ascend through the universe like others. Nope. They're

 Sarah 04:55
made, fully formed with a specific purpose. That's

 John 04:58
gotta be weird, like. Like being born in a doll, no childhood

 Sarah 05:03
in a way, yes, but the Urantia Book says that's their strength. They have this purity of purpose,

 John 05:09
but don't they miss out on, you know, experience. The

 Sarah 05:12
book says it's a double edged sword. They have the knowledge, but not the experience,

 John 05:15
like knowing the law, but never arguing a case, a perfect

S Sarah 05:19
analogy, and it even hints at some envy from them, envy, real envy for those who have ascended, who have stories that's

J John 05:28
wild, so even these perfect beings feel that way,

S Sarah 05:32
it reminds us that the journey matters at all levels. That's

J John 05:35
profound, and it makes those challenges we face here seem a bit less daunting.

S Sarah 05:40
Maybe they're part of the bigger picture, right? Okay, so

J John 05:43
back to these celestial guardians. They're not all about punishment, right?

S Sarah 05:46
No, they're guides too, especially for those spirit fused mortals, guiding them to uversa, using their unique position to help others. It's like they bridge the gap, which makes me think about those hisin assistants, the ones embodying a single idea what's their role? It's like having a direct line to cosmic Google, but way cooler, right?

J John 05:54

S Sarah 06:04
Need help understanding time. Bam. There's a hisung assistant for that, and they actually help out like solve problems. Oh, yeah. The Urantia Book talks about this commission struggling with a new universe problem. Okay? They called on a high sun assistant who get this embodied the concept they were wrestling with no way, and it helped totally blew their minds, gave them insights they never considered. That's amazing. It's like when you're stuck on something and suddenly the answer just appears

J John 06:27

S Sarah 06:32
exactly and it makes you think, maybe we can tap into those universal truths too. Maybe,

J John 06:37
okay, but hold on, if these high sun assistants are embodiments of ideas. Does that mean every concept is taken like is there a limit to cosmic wisdom? That's where it gets really wild. The Urantia Book says, No, not every concept is creature trinitized yet, so there's still more to discover. Oh, yeah, new ideas, new beings waiting to be formed. The Universe never stops, surprising us, does it? It makes you wonder, what other trinitized sons are out there, and what happens to them all when this universe age ends? Right?

S Sarah 06:47

J John 06:57

S Sarah 07:07
It's a big question. The Urantia Book doesn't give a complete answer, but it offers hints like, what remember those trinitized Sons of Destiny being held in reserve? Yeah, they're like the ultimate backups, right? Exactly.

J John 07:18

S Sarah 07:20
And there's this mention of a core of trinitized finalitors.

J John 07:24
Core of trinitized finalitors. It sounds so official, right?

S Sarah 07:27

Like the final stage, the peak of existence. But what do they do? Do we know that's the mystery. The Urantia Book leaves it open. I kind of like that. Even with all this cosmic knowledge, some things are still unknown. It keeps us exploring. It does so as we finish this deep dive, what's the big takeaway? What have we learned? The universe is vast, right? And these beings, these trinitized Sons of God, they're working behind the scenes in ways we can barely grasp. It's humbling, totally and just knowing they exist can change how we see things. So the next time we look at the stars, remember those cosmic judges, administrators, the embodiments of ideas, all working together, guiding the universe. It's pretty amazing when you think about it, it is and who knows what other wonders are hidden within the pages of the Urantia Book, exactly. So until next time, keep seeking, keep questioning, keep exploring, and we'll see you in the cosmos.

J John 07:36

S Sarah 07:47

J John 08:09

J John 08:17

S Sarah 08:21
