

Part 2, Paper 40, The Ascendin... Sons of God, Mighty Messenger

📅 Wed, Oct 02, 2024 3:53PM ⌚ 8:51

SUMMARY KEYWORDS

infinite sides, Universal Father, thought adjuster, ascending sons, cosmic game, mortal series, fusion potential, faith sons, father fusion, sun fusion, spirit fusion, two-way growth, free will, cosmic adventure, deep dive

SPEAKERS

Sarah, John

- S

Sarah 00:00

Ever try to picture like a mountain, but with infinite sides, and instead of climbing, it's more like we're trying to figure out how to exist on it, on all those sides? That's kind of what we're tackling with your deep dive request. Today we're going deep into excerpts from the Urantia Book, specifically paper 40 the ascending sons of God. And wow, this one's a real head scratcher.
- J

John 00:20

It's wild, right? What gets me about this paper is it's not just about us, about humans. You know, it's like laying out this crazy, intricate map of a universe, but packed with different beings, and they're all on their own paths trying to reach this Universal Father. It's true. And we're not even just talking angels here, though, there's definitely angels involved. This thing's got ascending material suns, which just try to wrap your head around that for a second. Imagine if, instead of just like living here beings like Adam and Eve, they get whole planets to help evolve. And if they pull it off, boom, upgraded existence, next level stuff. It's almost like a cosmic game with promotions, yeah. But it really hits you with how huge this whole cosmology as we get so caught up in being human on Earth. But this is saying we're just one tiny part of this massive web of beings all headed to the same ultimate whatever it is, right? So all these different beings all over this infinite mountain, all climbing, okay, but here's where it gets really wild. This excerpt, it's like we're getting the insider scoop. You know, it reads like someone who's actually been there, done that is laying out the cosmic rule book.
- S

Sarah 00:34

- J

John 00:53

S

Sarah 01:12

J

John 01:24

And that insider knowledge gets super interesting when it comes to how we're categorized humans. I mean, the whole thing kind of hinges on this thought adjuster.

S

Sarah 01:33

Okay, yeah, the thought adjuster. So for everyone listening, gotta break this down. We're not talking about some vague idea here this book, it's saying there's a literal piece of the Universal Father living inside every single one of us. Just let that sink in for a sec, a piece of infinity just hanging out in your brain and the thought adjuster. It's not just along for the ride. It's key to whether we ascend or not. But here's the kicker, not everyone ascends the same way, or even at all. That's where these three series of mortals come in, three series like, is this a subscription service? I gotta be honest, this is where I started getting a little lost.

J

John 01:52

S

Sarah 02:05

J

John 02:09

Think of it more like different starting points on that mountain we were talking about this book. It's suggesting humanity's gone through, or maybe still is going through these different phases. So series one, it's like the early humans, right? They had these thought adjusters, but fusion, where it merges and makes you immortal, it wasn't a sure thing back then, almost like the adjusters themselves were still figuring things out. Like, hmm, being human, how's this work again?

S

Sarah 02:35

So it's like the big U sends out these pieces of itself, these adjusters, and it's basically cosmic beta testing on humans. That's a wild thought. And then it gets even weirder, right? Because then there's series two these beings. And the book is really vague here, but they can't fuse like at all. So are they're a totally different human branch, another experiment entirely, the Urantia Book. It just kind of throws that out there. Yeah, doesn't explain.

John 02:44

Sarah 03:01

Okay, so we got series one Fusion's a maybe series two, fusions a no go. What about us? Where do we fit into this cosmic talent show that'd be series three, my friend. We're the ones, at least according to this book. We're the mortals with the adjuster fusion potential, the ones who can, if we want to walk, walk that specific path to the, I guess, the top of the mountain. So wait, let me get this straight. We've got these thought adjusters, these like divine roommates in our heads, and they might merge with us, make us live forever, all that jazz. But it's not like automatic we gotta want it. What if we say, Nah, I'm good. See, that's the question the Urantia Book. It really wants us to wrestle with that. It keeps saying, before any of this fusion stuff happens, we're faith sons, like, yeah, the Universal Father loves us. No problem there. But we haven't, you know, fully merged with that spark inside us yet, like we're at the base camp looking up at Everest, but we haven't decided if we're actually gonna climb and this climb, this fusion thing. It's not a one size fits all, package deal, right? We've got three types of fusion, and this is where it gets kind of wild again. Oh yeah, it's not just about merging with the thought adjuster, what it calls father fusion. There's Sun fusion too. Where get this? You fuse with the sun spirit instead, hold up, son spirit, is this starting to sound a little Sunday school to you? I

John 03:11

Sarah 03:23

John 03:35

Sarah 03:57

John 04:05

S Sarah 04:13

J John 04:18
get where you're coming from, for sure. The words are familiar, right? But we gotta remember the Urantia Book, it's got its own whole thing going on. It's not just copying other religious ideas. It's more like riffing on them.

S Sarah 04:30
Okay, okay, so Sun fusion different from like finding Jesus, right? It's more like becoming one with a different flavor of the Divine, exactly.

J John 04:40
And here's the thing the Urantia Book, it's very clear. It's not saying one path is better each fusion type, it leads to a different role, different job in the grand scheme of things. So like, instead of everyone ending up at the same peak, it's more like finding the right trail for you on that infinite mountain. You

S Sarah 04:49

J John 04:55
got it. And then there's the third kind of fusion, spirit fusion. And. Yeah, this one's where things get really interesting. Imagine, right? Merging not with the Father, not with the son, but with the essence of a whole universe. Whoa,

S Sarah 05:07
okay, that's a whole other level. So instead of ascending beyond a universe, you kind of become part of its what its DNA or something, yeah,

J John 05:14
and the text, it suggests this fusion might mean you're mostly working within that universe, but it's not like a demotion. It just shows how crazy diverse all the roles are in this cosmic, I don't know, this cosmic play we're all in, seeming would be the best plumber in the galaxy, or you could be designing solar systems, both important, just different scales, right? Exactly.

S

Sarah 05:29

J

John 05:34

And that gets back to this idea that free will, it's not just about good choices, bad choices. It's about picking how we want to serve within something way bigger than ourselves. But then there's this whole thing about the thought adjuster gaining experience. We gotta unpack that more, because what does that even mean? Yeah, you mentioned that before. It's not just us on a journey. It's like these little pieces of the big guy are learning with us. But what could something infinite even learn from? Let's be real how messed up humans are, and now, my friend, is a question that'll keep you up at night. The Urantia Book, it hints at this two way growth thing, like both sides, the mortal and the divine are changing each other, and that's where things get really exciting. So we're not just talking about like humans trying to get a gold star from the cosmos, right? This is way bigger. It's like we're all connected, every being, every path, and it all matters to this. This something we can't even wrap our heads around, yeah?

S

Sarah 05:51

J

John 06:02

S

Sarah 06:16

J

John 06:29

And that's what I find so refreshing about it. You know, it's so focused on me and salvation. But this blows it wide open. It's this whole universe exploding with life, all going somewhere together. Still kind of bends the brain a little though right thinking that a piece of like, God, this thought adjuster. It's learning and growing right alongside us. What's that even mean for us down here? Does that give us, like, cosmic homework or something?

S

Sarah 06:39

J John 06:52

It's humbling, that's for sure. The idea that what we do, the choices we make, they could, actually, I don't know, matter to something so much bigger than we can imagine. It kind of makes you look at everything differently. It's like that fight you had over whose turn it was to take out the trash. Suddenly, it's a cosmic event. But seriously, if this is a two way street, we're both growing here. What about the folks who are like fusion? No thanks. I'm good. Do they just like, blink out of existence or something the

S Sarah 07:04

J John 07:20

Urantia Book, it's funny, it never really gives a straight answer on that, which, honestly, I kind of love it. Let's think about it. You know, maybe those who don't fuse, they go on a different adventure, one that's not so much about reaching the Universal Father, but maybe more about, I don't know, being the best them they can be wherever they are. So instead of the mountain peak. It's more like finding the right altitude, the spot where you fit in best. Do your part for the whole picture. Yeah, exactly. And who's to say, right? Maybe those different paths, they all connect up again somewhere down the line. Anyway, this Urantia Book, it's giving us a peek into something so vast, so complex. It's like trying to understand the ocean by looking at a single drop of water.

S Sarah 07:39

J John 07:47

S Sarah 08:03

It's like standing on the shore staring out at the horizon and knowing that down below there's this whole other world we can't even begin to picture, but we can try, right? We've got this incredible chance to dive in, to explore, to learn, to keep asking questions, even if we never get all the answers exactly

J John 08:10

S Sarah 08:16

J John 08:20

so to everyone listening. If this deep dive into the ascending SONS OF GOD piqued your interest even a little, do yourself a favor. Check out paper 40 in the Urantia Book. It's a trip. I'll tell you that it'll challenge what you think you know, make you see the universe in a whole new light, and you might just come away with more questions than you started with. And who knows, maybe it'll even inspire you to start climbing your own mountain, whatever that looks like for you. Until next time, everyone keep exploring, keep asking those big questions, and we'll see you in the next deep dive. You.

S Sarah 08:39